Presentations were made to Council by several residents with respect to closure of Lakeshore Drive boat launch. Council listened to their concerns and notes were taken to be reviewed and addressed in the future. Several expressed their concerns of liability caused by diverting vehicles to launch at the Lakeside Drive municipal public boat launch. Ratepayers were advised that a Working Group consisting of one staff member, one council member and seven residents will be formed to look at viable options for boat launch facilities in the municipality, a review of Lakeside Drive and Stewart Park boat launches, risk management concerns associated with these municipal launches and the feasibility of siting a launch at the north end of Lake Manitouwabing.
